

Intentional Interim Ministry Refresher Course

First Dawn Eastern Edge Regional Council
&
Office of Vocation
2021

Intentional Interim Ministry Refresher Course:

The Office of Vocation, in cooperation with First Dawn Eastern Edge Regional Council, is offering an online refresher course for intentional interim ministers, beginning Wednesday, January 13, 2021 and running weekly until February 10, 2021 (12:30 pm - 4:30 pm EST). The course is open only to Ministry Personnel who have previously completed Interim Ministry Training provided by either The United Church of Canada or the Interim Ministry Network (IMN). This program meets the requirements for updated education for designation and appointment as an Intentional Interim Minister.

Through these highly interactive webinars, you have the opportunity to revisit some of the material and delve into it again with experienced colleagues. You will finish the series more familiar with the 3 theories and the 3 questions, with Process Tasks and Focus Points (similar to what was formerly called “Developmental Tasks”), and better equipped for IIM, including a better understanding of how you manage conflict. Because this is a denominational event, there will also be an opportunity to review the United Church’s IIM handbooks and processes.

About the Facilitator:

Pegi Ridout has been a member of the IMN Faculty for 15 years, with Professional Transitional Specialist designation. She is an experienced Intentional Interim Minister, now serving in her 7th IIM appointment. During more than 40 years as an ordained minister, she has led rural, urban and suburban churches in southern Ontario. Among other interests and responsibilities, she chairs the Credentialing Committee of the Office of Vocation.

Schedule:

January 13: Joining and The 3 Key Theories

January 27: Change

February 10: Leadership, Values and Exiting

January 20: Process Tasks and Focus Points

February 3: Conflict

Each session will invite reflection on the material through the lens of your own experience. All sessions will be completed online.

Please note that absence from any session is disruptive to others and will void completion requirements.

How Much is the Course and Where to Register:

The cost for the event is $275
